

FORT WORTH ART DEALERS ASSOCIATION

2019 SPRING GALLERY NIGHT

SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 2019

www.fwada.com

FWADA is a unique arts organization in a unique American place. Few cities of Fort Worth's size are privileged to command such a wealth of major art museums, and fewer still have such a vital community spirit. What truly sets Fort Worth apart, however, is the vigorous, longstanding, clearly defined cooperation between the museums, the university art galleries, the non-profit exhibition spaces, and the art dealers, all of which are full working members of FWADA. To fulfill its stated mission to stimulate interest in the visual arts through educational programs, art scholarships, and art competitions, FWADA organizes, funds, and hosts exhibitions of noteworthy art. It sponsors the Fall Gallery Night for members and friends, as well as Spring Gallery Night.

All these attainments have created a stable environment that produces a steady stream of top-notch talent, including major local artists who exhibit their work nationally and internationally. Newcomers are frequently dazzled by the quality of work being created in every medium and style. Their passion reinvigorates Fort Worth patrons who have become habituated to the riches that surround them, reminding them anew that the most authentic cultural connection they can make is the one that affords direct communication with the artists who interpret and illuminate the life experience they share through common background and interests. Although the city is justly recognized for its cosmopolitan worldview, it is the local artists and their devoted collectors who are the lifeblood of the Fort Worth art market.

The members of the Fort Worth Art Dealers Association are pledged to the maintenance of a high standard of ethical conduct and professional integrity, these businesses furnish a model that gallery associations in other cities might do well to emulate. FWADA is to be commended for its important role as a contributor to the cultural and esthetic richness of Fort Worth.

GALLERY 414

The Fort Worth Art Dealers Association would like to thank John Hartley, Adele Krause, and Razz Fiedler & Family for the last 24 years!

Together they opened Gallery 414 as a space to promote and exhibit contemporary art in a variety of media and subject matter by new and established artists.

After 24 years Gallery 414 will be closing their doors. Curator, artist, teacher and friend John Hartley has been a member of the Fort Worth Art Dealers Association for many years, and for this and for the countless hours You, Adele and The Fiedler family have given to the Fort Worth art community we THANK YOU!

THANK YOU FOR 24 YEARS

Two Friends... Two Views

A joint exhibition by Suzan Cook and Caro Jackson:

These two talented artists have a friendship that spans decades and a bond over creating beautiful artwork, though their styles diverge, their works pair strikingly well. Caro has developed a whimsical impressionistic style full of motion and color, concentrating on landscapes in oil, especially those of West Texas, and the mountains. Suzan is an abstract conceptual artist. Her focus in painting has continued to translate concepts that reflect life, creating a visual language through the use of color, form, and texture. Oil on canvas is her medium. Come see the world through the artists' eyes and be inspired with us on Gallery Night.

No Filter*: Kyle Steed and Lisa Krannichfeld Exhibition

Dates: March 27, 2019 - May 4, 2019

Opening Reception: Saturday, March 30 12pm - 9pm

Fort Works Art is pleased to present No Filter, an exhibition featuring the work of artists Kyle Steed and Lisa Krannichfeld. The show will explore issues relating to their upbringing in the American south, religion, culture, and gender expectations through stunning mixed media paintings and illustrations. The multifaceted nuances of the theme will be further highlighted in the contrast between their individual styles and subjects. Steed, a Dallas-based abstract painter and illustrator, explores the constant state of change we all experience over the course of our life and his practice in learning to let go of the need to control it. With his stark black line work and vibrant use of abrupt colorful paint strokes, Steed compels you to embrace imperfect moments and mistakes that often lead to a new understanding. Off-setting these works will be the vibrant and pattern-rich figurative works of Arkansas based painter and mixed media artist Lisa Krannichfeld. Her expressive portraits refute the traditional portrayal of women being passive subjects to gaze upon, evident in their confrontational, and at times defiant expressions.

Christian Hootsells believes that art at its best is a dialogue between the artist and the viewer. The artist is allowed by the viewer to express his understanding of a given subject, but the artist must in return provide the viewer with work that appeals, interests, and asks the viewer to step into his world. One will see Christian's work certainly embraces his beliefs.

ANOTHER FRONTIER: FREDERIC REMINGTON'S EAST

Frederic Remington's art has so profoundly shaped our perceptions of the Old West that we only vaguely, if at all, recall that he was an Easterner born and bred. He grew up in Canton and Ogdensburg, New York—the North Country, the forested region stretching from the Adirondack Mountains across the St. Lawrence River into Canada. The artwork on view, on loan from the Frederic Remington Art Museum in Ogdensburg, New York, shifts the focus from Remington's popular Western imagery to his less familiar Eastern subjects, inviting visitors to expand their knowledge of the iconic artist.

Jack is a local Texas artist who primarily enjoys working with linoleum-cut block printing process for its simplicity and reproducibility. His subject matter involves pop-culture, historical references, and current local happenings, most often twisted with his personal brand of humor. He studied printmaking at Tarrant County College in 2006 and now lives in North Richland Hills with his wife and two wonderful children. When not being engaged with his printmaking process, he can often be found playing music in the local scene or taking pictures of his pet chickens! Join us for an innovative and unique collaborative exploration as we work together to realize Jack's concepts in glass.
