

FORT WORTH ART DEALERS ASSOCIATION

www.fwada.com

MISSION STATEMENT

FWADA is a unique arts organization in a unique American place. Few cities of Fort Worth's size are privileged to command such a wealth of major art museums, and fewer still have such a vital community spirit. What truly sets Fort Worth apart, however, is the vigorous, longstanding, clearly defined cooperation between the museums, the university art galleries, the non-profit exhibition spaces, and the art dealers, all of which are full working members of FWADA.

To fulfill its stated mission to stimulate interest in the visual arts through educational programs, art scholarships, and art competitions, FWADA organizes, funds, and hosts exhibitions of noteworthy art.

FWADA sponsors the annual Fall Gallery Night and Spring Gallery Night for members and friends. FWADA also sponsors an annual show featuring submitted artworks from Member institutions, the summer Selections exhibition. Keep an eye out for our Gallery Guide! You can find our most recent issue in your FW Weekly newspaper, or pick one up at a Member gallery or museum.

All these attainments have created a stable environment that produces a steady stream of top-notch talent, including major local artists who exhibit their work nationally and internationally. Newcomers are frequently dazzled by the quality of work being created in every medium and style. Their passion reinvigorates Fort Worth patrons who have become habituated to the riches that surround them, reminding them anew that the most authentic cultural connection they can make is the one that affords direct communication with the artists who interpret and illuminate the life experience they share through common background and interests. Although the city is justly recognized for its cosmopolitan worldview, it is the local artists and their devoted collectors who are the lifeblood of the Fort Worth art market.

The members of the Fort Worth Art Dealers Association are pledged to the maintenance of a high standard of ethical conduct and professional integrity; these businesses furnish a model that gallery associations in other cities might do well to emulate. FWADA is to be commended for its important role as a contributor to the cultural and aesthetic richness of Fort Worth.

Ode to the Masters – The art of Ed Salazar – Galeria de la Rosa/Main Gallery
In representational art, I believe that it greatly benefits an artist to explore how the Masters painted. By absorbing these lessons, I hope to put my own touch and personality in my own unique works of art.

Shadowlands by Carol Hayman – Annex Gallery

These current works are monochrome photo intaglio prints, from original photographs by the artist. They are printed on BFK Rives, bark paper, and chine collé washi paper, with Charbonnel ink. The themes deal with mythology and myth-making attached to objects and locations from urban legends to Native-American and Aboriginal story-telling, with Greek, Roman, Japanese, and Norse mythology, heroes, sheroes, and super-heroes, in comic books, sci-fi tales, and ghost stories told around a campfire. These prints give homage to indigenous ways of knowing through stylized, semi-abstracted figurations depicting a potential narrative sequence. Shadows of mythical stories haunt the landscapes, alluding to creation stories. The work suggests myths and daydreams in a dreamworld of cosmic nature, evoking notions of disappearance, deconstruction, and self-effacement. The mythological world is part of being human. These prints bridge past and present, the mystical and concrete.

Arts Fort Worth Biennial, Juried by Lilia Kudelia in the Frost and Visiting Angels Galleries

The Biennial is Back! The Fort Worth Biennial is a survey exhibition occurring every two years showcasing and celebrating the artistic talents of Texas. After missing the 2020 Biennial due to the pandemic, Arts Fort Worth will focus on the local creative community that kept us going through the shutdown, highlighting Fort Worth and Tarrant County artists. The Biennial was the first exhibition at the Fort Worth Community Arts Center, under the title The 39-Hour Show. In 2004, the exhibition became a biennial in even-numbered years and Arts Fort Worth is thrilled to bring this exhibition back!

JUROR: Lilia Kudelia is a guest curator at Residency Unlimited in New York and has previously worked as the Assistant Curator at Dallas Contemporary and held curatorial and research positions at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, DC and Art Arsenal in Kyiv, Ukraine. In 2017, Kudelia co-curated Ukrainian National Pavilion at the 57th Venice Biennale.

Artspace111 presents Paradigm Shift, by Texan-Venezuelan artist Ender Martos. A paradigm shift is an intense transformative process that lacks a true beginning, middle, and end. Martos' upcoming show celebrates this concept through a carefully thought-out presentation of curated wall pieces created through the Covid-19 pandemic, as well as a brand new series where the artist explores new materials that help convey a sensation of shifting process and movement. The exhibit will showcase dynamic three-dimensional wall sculptures with monofilament, colored acrylic mirror and other media. Jazz music by the Andrew Skates Trio will be performed on the patio from 4-7pm and food will be available for purchase.

Exhibition: Rueben Gonzales, Counterpoint the Climb
On view, Aug. 22-Oct. 21, 2022

Artist Rueben Gonzales presents his photographic body of work, Counterpoint The Climb, an on-going body of contemporary work that is an extension of the New Topographics discourse. The images investigate emotion and memory using traditional black and white imagery as a counterpoint to the overload and pace of production of contemporary photographs. The black and white aesthetic lends itself to memory and nostalgia, allowing for less leading narrative, and more room for personal interpretation of the images. Masks are encouraged but not required.

SUBLIME by artist Crystal Wagner.

Sublime is a site-specific installation by artist Crystal Wagner. Wagner, with the help of a small local team, built a large-scale immersive ecosystem in the heart of Fort Worth's cultural district. People of all ages are encouraged to come in and interact with the artwork, as that experience itself is part of the artwork. The exhibition is sponsored by Gallery of Dreams, opened on July 9th, and will be on view through October 15th. Built by the internationally recognized artist Crystal Wagner. Wagner is a full-time interdisciplinary artist whose work directly reflects world-building ideas through the physical use of textural and recyclable materials such as picnic table plastic with the natural movement of our bodies through the urban landscape.

Wagner's Statement on Sublime: "SUBLIME is growth. A meandering self-propagating pseudo-scape that has taken root in Fort Works Art. With each installation, I use the space as the substrate. Where the walls are, the height of the ceiling, the windows, the way sunlight crawls across the gallery floor, and the architectural bones are all foundational pivot points for site-specific world-building"

We are very excited to be exhibiting Crescencio Parra's realistic metal sculptures. Born in Mexico, when he was five he started watching his father's techniques as a blacksmith. At the age of fifteen, Crescencio started welding. Every piece is hand cut and welded. His sculptures exude his great passion for sculpting. The creative use of steel materials and his inspiring attention to detail is well worth one's time to come and experience Consencio's sculptures.

One will also see new works by Rebecca Low, Chasity Hernandez, David Mikitka, Ken O'Toole, Terry Jones, Tatara Siegel, David Burkhart and David Searl. Come and enjoy!

Alli Rogers Andreen is an artist and educator in Dallas, Texas. She has her MA in Art Education from the University of North Texas and specializes in art museum education and informal learning environments. She makes collaborative, performative work, often exploring concepts of history, femininity, community, and play.

"I typically work in a variety of media to achieve playful collaborative environments through manipulation of translucent fiber materials layered with cellophane and painted blocks, welcoming participants to add, rearrange, or otherwise change the work. The tactility and unpredictable nature of these materials lends itself to improvisational construction, which translates well to the medium of glass, and presents a challenging balance between spontaneity and control."

In honor of FWADA's Fall Gallery Night, the museum has invited Fort Worth artist Kerri Menchaca to host a demonstration of her painting process for creating night-sky landscapes. Inspired by Remington's nocturnes, Menchaca will share her process, invite visitors to add their personal touches to a canvas, and help create meaningful connections with the Remington nocturnes on display in the museum's current exhibition, Picturing the American West.

WAKE: Ian Weaver | August 24–October 1, 2022

Artist Talk in the gallery at 2 pm, Saturday September 10

Ian Weaver's interdisciplinary artistic practice explores memory and considers how individuals and communities construct their own identities. In reference to Christina Sharpe's writings on representations of Black life, the title of Weaver's exhibition responds to multiple understandings of "wake" – the temporary and ephemeral path behind a boat, a social ritual associated with funerals and a celebration of the dead, and the idea of awakening or becoming conscious. At FWCA Weaver responds to "wake" with a selection of objects that collectively weave together intersecting concerns of memory and identity. Referencing historic maritime culture, his new works include the skeletal frame of a boat hull, an anchor, and part of a lighthouse. He also includes family photographic portraiture and a film that documents the wake of a boat referencing locations of the Underground railroad on the South Side of Chicago.

Her installation comprises video, sculpture and print focused on browsing, reclining and daydreaming as productive and valuable creative acts.

He depicts Bronc and Bull riders clinging to their opponent, both rider and animal in independent struggle. Through these works, Lovett is depicting the sometimes-violent struggle to find truth, both with ourselves and in the world around us. In a clean greyscale palette with crisp white backgrounds, Lovett brings the terms Western and Modern together in each of his 20 oil paintings. On Gallery Night, Jacob Lovett will debut his Blinder's limited edition T-shirts with a live screen printing event in partnership with Printed Threads. Get your own T-shirt printed from 6-9pm. The Kickpigeon Kids are happy to present NOW KITH, an installation of work from diverse artists in a space with a collection of art objects that asks where one stops and another begins. Invited artists from across the metroplex were asked to consider the ways in which the objects, communities, and cities surrounding them extend the functional boundaries of an artist's studio beyond the literal space that art is made in. The Kickpigeon Kids are the team of Max Marshall and Cosmo Jones, a collaborative outfit exploring a philosophy of curation that questions the ordered aesthetic of gallery walls, the accessibility of preserved collections, and the established boundaries between art, artist, and consumer.
